

ICRD Monthly Update

November 1, 2017

Once again we find ourselves grieving in the wake of another horrific attack on innocent civilians, this time in New York. With heavy hearts, we turn our attention to finding and celebrating those who are making their faith part of the solution to global problems, including violence. To this end, the International Center for Religion & Diplomacy (ICRD) is soliciting nominations for our 2018 Faith-in-Action Award. The Faith-in-Action Award ceremony and celebratory dinner is a long-standing tradition during which ICRD recognizes a prominent individual who has demonstrated remarkable leadership in advancing spiritual reconciliation in the course of her or his life's work.

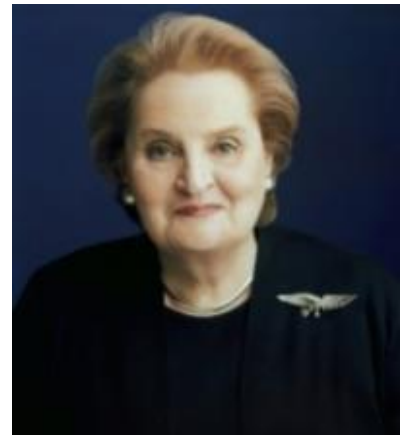

Our distinguished Faith-in-Action award alumni include:

The Honorable Madeleine Albright

Imam Mohamed Magid

Mrs. Sally Quinn

Imam Feisal Rauf and Ms. Daisy Khan

The Honorable Madeleine Albright

Imam Mohamed Magid

Rabbi Jack Bemporad

The Honorable Tony Hall

His Excellency Rafat and Mrs. Shaista
Mahmood

Cardinal Theodore McCarrick

Acknowledging the breadth of experience amongst our supporters, the 2018 Faith-in-Action award ceremony will be the first in which ICRD engages you in the nomination process. Please click here to complete the online nomination form. Please note that it is preferable if nominees are based in or travel frequently to the US.

Deadline: We thank you for submitting your nomination before
Dec. 15th, 2017.

ICRD is also proud to announce the recent publication of our 2015-2017 Organizational Report. The report highlights the Center's strategy, team and recent programmatic work - now spanning seven countries on four continents.

Warm regards,

James Patton
President

DONATE

Learn More

Volunteer or Intern